SMALL LIST OF AMERICAN-HAWAHAN TO CUT OFF

TRAVELERS ON VENTURA

Bringing only 15 passengers to Hoholulu, the smallest list she has had in many months, the Oceanic liner Ventura, Capt. J. H. Dawson, docked at Pier 10 at 7:45 this morning, coming from San Francisco. She is sail-Pago Pago and Sydney, taking mail, passengers and freight. From here only a few passengers and 100 cases of canned pines for Dunedin, New Zealand, are going. For Honolulu the liner brought 13 first-class, one second and one steerage passengers. Through passengers are 32 first-cabin, 24 second and 11 steerage. Freight for this port is 122 tons, mostly ice-house cargo. Through cargo is 2291 tons, practically capac-

these, declare federal and territorial officials, do not give them the right to conduct "blind pigs" aboard where shilsted men or civilians may purchase liquor.

According to Liquor License Inspec-tor Fennel the price of booze soid by the vessels has been high, beer rang-ing from five cears a stein on the Geier to 11 for three bottles on the Pommern. When the beer was to be consumed on the wharf the Geier asked 50 cents a pitcher, says the in-officials who conducted the investigation declare that the men engaged in selling the booze were well aware that they were violating the law. Not long ago, they say, the Geler's place of business was moved from the canteen to the dynamo room and that the cook of the Pommern, who had been dispenser on that vessel, became suspicious and quit his job. His place was taken by the steward. The Prinz Waldemar, say the investigators, was
